PARENTS -- WE LOVE YOU

We, the 20 Seniors of the Class of 1963 wish to tell you so, by dedicating this annual to you.

You have faithfully guided us, advised us, given us loving counsel and diligent assistance. You have turned tears of disappointment into tears of happiness. You have understood us and inspired us to achieve accomplishments and develop our personalities.

You have taught us basic things like "Always Remember Thy Creator," and "Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself." You have shown us paths of kindness and guided our footsteps through patience and tolerance so that we may become Good Citizens of Tomorrow.

Each of us Thank you. We appreciate you more than you know.

Senior Sneak Day

May 2, 1963

The Senior class after a hearty breakfast in Wahoo.

Seniors eagerly paying for their plane rides.

A Day In Omaha, Nebraska

Karen, Leon, Janice, and Anita wait for their plane ride. Karen sure looks anxious.

Leon, Larry, Arlan, Anita, Janice, Roger, Doug, and Dave in back ground relax a few minutes before taking off for supper. A penny for your wishes Leon.

Dave, Roger, Karen, Leon, Calvin, and Doug stand around while waiting for a good or not so good, plane ride.

The Seniors live it up on the way home with a few songs.

Places visited by the Seniors were Boys Town, Omaha National Bank, Lang Airport, and in the evening a Cinerama at the Cooper Theater.

Cheryl, Bonnie, and Kenny look over plane after their adventure over Omaha.

Class Will

We, the Seniors of '63 having perfect control of mind, and being unaffected by the hard study and high marks, and realizing that we soon must vacate our supreme possessions, do hereby will and bequeath them as follows:

To Mr. Sand we will our acting ability and the old wig belonging to the dramatics department so his head won't get cold next winter.
To Mr. Martin we will our cheerful "Good Mornings."
To Mrs. Clarke goes our ability to be quiet and settle down in English class.
To Mr. Karloff we will our loud mouths so he can yell FIRE! and clear the study hall.
To Mr. Schnackenberg we, the Senior girls, will our newly acquired shop ability and we, the Senior boys, will all our old grass in case he is ever on a dirt football field.
To Mr. Leigh we will all our old car accessories so his car won't have to be stock.
To Mr. McIntosh goes all the old crossword puzzles from the newspapers and a different laugh.
To Mrs. Boyer we will our old compasses and rulers.
To Miss Heiden we, the Senior girls, will all our old pep club uniforms and we, the Senior boys, will all our unique cooking ability.
To Mr. Lees we will our grade school trophies.
To the Freshmen go our good looks and cheerful manner. To the girls we will more boys so they won't be so lonely.
To the Sophomores we will our old baby buggies and tricycles so they won't smash the new Drivers Ed. car.
To the Juniors we will the dread disease of Senioritis and also our ability to pack cars.
I, Roger Morris, will my great height to Max Kroger and my long hair to Marshall Anderson.
I, Karen Stevens, will my second year Spanish papers to Jane Fredrickson and Merton Flodman, and to Max Kroger my singing ability.
I, Calvin Crow, will all my trips east of town to Sherman Wilshusen and all my brownie points to Bill Nelson.
I, Bonnie Shaw, will my spelling and punctuating ability to Mrs. Clarke, something should be done with it, and to Lynda VanOstrand my dainty yelling voice in case she ever wants to be heard.
I, Ron Johnson, will my trusty Chevy to the loyal Ford owners providing they wash it once a year and to Bill Nelson goes my great English knowledge.
I, Sharon Willits, will my hot rod to my sister Dee so she can get to school, and my typing ability to Bob Rahrs and Larry Johnson.
I, Kenneth Meerkatz, will my natural curly hair to Jean Larkin and my ability to sleep in class to John Recknor.
I, Cheryl Bush, will my ability to have a steady boyfriend to Pat Ramsey and to Janice Creech my second period study hall lunch.
I, Charles Cramer, will my rooster tails to Mr. McIntosh and my trips to Hordville to Marlene Coover and Linda Kisler.
I, Natalie Hahn, will my flirtatious manner to Janice Creech and my Republican literature to Mr. McIntosh in order that he may become enlightened by the next presidential election.
I, David Fjell, will my messy locker to anyone having enough nerve to clean it, and my third period study hall to Don Stewart so he can read all the magazines.
I, Janice Anderson, will all my twist records to Mrs. Clarke to sing Spanish by, and my quietness in study hall to Joan Sandell and my all around noisy seriousness to Lorraine Recknor.
I, Larry Coover, will my ability to get good grades in Bookkeeping to Dennis Morris and my Senior football letter to Bill Nelson.
I, Bonnie Hanquist, will my ability to be the only girl in Physics to Gail Giles and my good driving habits to Karen Funk.
I, Doug Sundberg, will all my athletic injuries to whoever needs them in order to miss a couple days of practice, and my ability to stay out of the ditches while driving to Dee Willits.
I, Janelle Smith, will my weekly trips to Lincoln to Connie Hoffman and my good study habits to Denny Morris.
I, Leon Stromberg, will my great height to "Shorty" Sagehorn and my tremendous speed to Dick Mundt.
I, Linda Nyberg, will my nervous nature to Denny Sealey and my ability to go to Algebra class without talking to John Recknor.
I, Arlan Stromberg, will my ability to sleep through class to Galen Sterner and my running co-ordination to Gary Sagehorn.
I, Anita Mundt, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Bruce Bedient and all my old gum and candy wrappers to the girls in the seventh period study hall.

Signed this the fourteenth day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three.

Senior Class Prophecy

We were strolling along the streets of Polk during the time that the Polk Bean Day was here. We came to an odd looking tent, and out of curiosity we went in. There on a table was a crystal ball, and no one was around to watch it. We had an idea. We would ask the crystal ball what the 1963 Seniors would be doing in 10 years. Here is what it had to say.

Bonnie Shaw is still in Polk upholding the name of SHAW. Right now she is out of business because a certain Chev is not running.

Kenny Meerkatz was seen in Omaha recently in one of the downtown garages purchasing new piston rings, valves, crankshaft, carburetor, steering rod, rear axle, distributor, spark plugs, fuel pump, generator, connecting rods, and horn with which to repair his "CHEV." He hopes it will run now.

Sharon Willits has completed her education at business school and has now gotten down to business, being a housewife.

Dave Fjell has established a Baby Sitting Agency. His motto is, "The older the better." Dave works the night shift 9:00 to 5:00.

Cheryl Bush is married and has completed her education in building and construction. She is now building the new and modern Van Houses.

Ron Johnson is President of the Ford Motor Company. He received this promotion because he designed the Thunderbird that really flies. He is still single. I imagine that he won't stay that way very long.

Janelle Smith has completed her education and is giving organ lessons at Creighton Prep. Janelle thinks a lot of her teaching profession AND her students.

Charles Cramer is a taxi driver in Hordville. His spare time is spent in "Garner and Company."

Janice Anderson is married. Her husband is President of the CARPENTER'S UNION. They have three sets of twins. Their names are: Hammer, Nail, Square, Lathe, Saw, and Plane Jr.

Arlan Stromberg has finally received a promotion in Barb's Snack Shack. He started out polishing apples; now he is pushing creme cones.

Bonnie Hanquist is now married and operates a Green House. She specializes in little cedar trees.

Larry Coover who is in California has worked his way to the head of the BEVERLY HILLBILLYS. He says he enjoys his position very much.

Calvin Crow who is on the next set, is head director and producer of the TWILIGHT ZONE. Calvin is increasing his cast to keep up with the BEVERLY HILLBILLYS.

Linda Nyberg has become a top flight brain surgeon. She accredits her success to her cool, calm, and collected assistance.

Leon Stromberg is in Venezuela digging for oil; by hand. He is working on his second million; he gave up on his first.

Anita Mundt was recently noted for discovering the time saving device of feeding her husband onions so she can find him in the dark.

Douglas Sundberg is a famous hair stylist. He has just established "Dougy's Beauty Saloon"--swinging doors and all.

Natalie Hahn has just won a Gold Medal at the OLYMPICS in the Hop, Skip, and Jump. Natalie says it is easy, all you have to do is have long legs, walk, hop, skip, and jump.

Roger Morris, because of his great height, has replaced Wilt Chamberlin. He is averaging a sizzling 55.1 points per game.

Karen Stevens is now a supplier for Ang Manufacturing. Karen supplies a bright atmosphere with her friendly smile and unusual sales technique.

All of a sudden the gypsy fortune teller returned to her tent. We hurried out. It's a good thing we had come to the last person of the Senior Class of 1963.

King and queen with their attendants occupy the nicely decorated chairs provided by girls of the sophomore class.

Charles Cramer served as master of ceremonies at the 1963 all-sports banquet.

The freshly decorated chairs to be occupied by the king and queen. They remain unoccupied until banquet night when announced by the person handling the crowning ceremonies.

That far off look of the king and queen chairs. Eligible seniors anxiously awaited decision on night of banquet to see who would occupy these chairs.

Pep club girls await to receive pep club awards, letters, by their sponsor, Miss Kay Heiden.

Football and track Coach Bill Schnackenberg awards most outstanding track medal to Arlan Stromberg. Arlan placed 4th in the 220 yd. dash at the state.

Freshman girls hurriedly prepare last minute table decorations before the big night.

Don Stewart took charge of crowning ceremonies. Cheryl Bush was crowned queen, and Doug Sundberg was crowned king.

On May 7th, the annual all-sports banquet was held in the high school auditorium. We were fortunate to have as guest speaker, Bob Devaney, football coach from the University of Nebraska. On this evening letters for pep club, basketball, football, and track were awarded.

The girls met in regular pep club session during the year, and made plans for the banquet. They selected as the theme for the banquet, "A Walk With The Stars."

Natalie Hahn delighted the crowd and Mr. Devaney with a humorous reading.

Students set at one of the tables waiting for the food. There were 325 in attendance at the banquet.

The king and queen with their attendants are congratulated by Dennis VanHousen, Jolene Doremus, and Lorraine Recknor.

Pep club girls received letters, chevrons, certificates for perfect attendance, and medals for the offices held during the year.

On this night, May 7th, medals were presented to the outstanding football, basketball, and track participant. Ken Meerkatz received the one for football, Doug Sundberg for basketball, and Arlan Stromberg the medal for track.
